

Atlanta Symphony Orchestra's

FAMILY CONCERT SERIES

Three great concerts for kids

The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra offers something for the whole family. Our Family Concerts are a wonderful way to introduce children to classical music and let their imaginations run wild.

OCT 16 | Sun: 3pm
Jerry Hou, conductor

Halloween Spooktacular

Superheroes & villains, ghosts & goblins, princesses & princes — they all need theme music and this concert provides the finest. Kids (and adults!) can get an early jump on showing off their halloween costumes with the Orchestra joining in with some outrageous get-ups.

Concert Length: 50 minutes, No intermission

NOV 27 | Sun: 3pm
Justin Freer, conductor
Georgia Tech Choirs

One of the most iconic holiday films is now a very special live concert event. Watch as the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and choir perform with the full movie projected on the big screen. Don't miss The Polar Express in Concert.

Concert Length: 124 minutes with intermission

MAR 5 | Sun: 3pm

Symphony Safari

Hippos and mice and bears, oh my! In this program, the animal kingdom comes to life with familiar favorites like Rimsky-Korsakov's Flight of the Bumblebee, Saint-Saëns' The Carnival of the Animals and more. Go on a musical safari with your family and the ASO to discover the many wonderful sounds of the Orchestra.

Concert Length: 50 minutes, No intermission
