The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra offers something for the whole family. Our Family Concerts are a wonderful way to introduce children to classical music and let their imaginations run wild.

Halloween Spooktacular

Superheroes & villains, ghosts & goblins, princesses & princes—all need theme music and this concert provides the finest. Kids (and adults!) can get an early jump on showing off their Halloween costumes with the Orchestra joining in with some outrageous get-ups.

PLEASE NOTE: All dates, prices and artists are subject to change. Pricing reflects subscriber discounts where applicable.

All concerts take place at the Woodruff Arts Center, Atlanta Symphony Hall

NOV 27 | Sun: 3pm
Justin Freer, conductor
Georgia Tech Choirs

One of the most iconic holiday films is now a very special live concert event. Watch as the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and choir perform with the full movie projected on the big screen. Don’t miss The Polar Express in Concert.

Family concert performances are made possible through a generous grant from the Lettie Pate Evans Foundation, which is part of the family of foundations that also includes the Robert W. Woodruff Foundation.

Additional non-series tickets for THE POLAR EXPRESS in Concert can be purchased at checkout. Ticket prices range from $39.50-69.50.

MAR 5 | Sun: 3pm
Syphony Safari
William R. Langley, conductor

Hippopotamuses and mouses and bears, oh my! In this program, the animal kingdom comes to life with familiar favorites like Rimsky-Korsakov’s Flight of the Bumblebee, Saint-Saëns’ The Carnival of the Animals and more. Go on a musical safari with your family and the ASO to discover the many wonderful sounds of the Orchestra.
