About Symphony at Sunset: Halloween Spooktacular

It's spooky season at the symphony! Experience a spellbinding symphonic experience filled with Halloween classics performed live by your Atlanta Symphony, along with film score favorites that are sure to delight guests of all ages. Come in costume and be ready to Danse Macabre with skeletons, spend a Night on Bald Mountain, and journey into the worlds of Harry Potter and E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial.

Arrive early and get into the Halloween spirit with festive activities before the concert begins. Young music lovers can transform into their favorite characters with face painting, try hands-on activities at an instrument exploration station, pose for photos at themed Halloween backdrops, and enjoy interactive games, crafts, and trick-or-treat surprises throughout the venue. With plenty of opportunities to play, explore, and create lasting memories, there's something for every ghost, goblin, wizard, and superhero in the family.

Lawn tickets start at $10. Premium reserved table seating will also be available for purchase.

About the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra

Under the leadership of Music Director Nathalie Stutzmann, the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra (ASO) offers live performances, media initiatives, and learning programs that unite, educate and enrich our community through the engaging and transformative power of orchestral music experiences. The ASO engages the diverse international community of our city, bringing people together in harmony—including our youngest citizens, with extensive opportunities for youth and families to fall in love with music.

The Orchestra's range and depth are featured in more than 150 concerts each year, including the flagship Delta Classical Series, Movies in Concert, Family Concerts, Coca-Cola Holiday series, and many community and education concerts. In addition, the ASO presents many vibrant, wide-ranging events and artists through its Delta Atlanta Symphony Hall Live presentations. The ASO also performs with the ASO Chorus, originally founded by Robert Shaw, and currently under the direction of Norman Mackenzie. The Chorus is featured on nine of the ASO's 27 Grammy® Award-winning recordings.
