Our Family Concerts and Music for the Very Young Concerts include sensory-friendly story guides, playlists, headphones, quiet rooms and more.

FAMILY CONCERTS

Child-sized concerts blend storytelling with music performed by the full orchestra on the Atlanta Symphony Hall stage. Join actors and dancers as they invite you to explore new worlds, celebrate cultural traditions and let your imagination soar with orchestral music.

Arrive early for pre-concert fun with arts and crafts, photo booths, instrument exploration and more.

6-12 YEARS

DAYTIME

SUNDAYS

“Liam, age six, remarked during the concert that he knew how to play the bells, the cymbals, and the tuba when those instruments were used during the concert. Priceless!”

- Elesá

Presented with generous support from the Lettie Pate Evans Foundation and the Molly Blank Fund of the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation.

MUSIC FOR THE VERY YOUNG - CLASSES

0-5 YEARS

DAYTIME

WEEKDAYS

In partnership with The Music Class, our play-based, interactive classes for babies, toddlers, and preschoolers with their caregivers include an exclusive “Meet-the-Musician” spotlight with ASO musicians. This research-based education program is designed to unleash the musical potential of little ones through weekly music and movement classes.

“We have seen a drastic change in our child’s musical ability, talking, pattern recognition and confidence. I cannot recommend this enough to families!”

- Katherine Medina,
MVY Class attendee

MUSIC FOR THE VERY YOUNG - CONCERTS

3-8 YEARS

DAYTIME

WEEKENDS

Classical music meets storytelling, as members of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra bring your favorite fables and storybooks to life. Parents of 3 to 8-year-olds will enjoy these interactive, 45-minute concerts with their little ones who can engage with the actors and musicians as the story unfolds, and the music is brought to life.

WE ALSO OFFER
MVY CONCERTS
AS A FIELD TRIP.

STUDENTS + EDUCATORS

ASO Education is committed to providing professional learning opportunities for all ages, throughout the greater Atlanta area and beyond.

From on-campus engagement for groups through field trips, open rehearsals, and professional development for educators, Symphony Hall is your destination for exceptional artistry, engaging experiences and more.

Off campus, we provide in-school clinics and performances for regional school programs that are adaptable by design and allow students of all ages to receive the highest level of training from ASO musicians.

STUDENTS AT THE SYMPHONY

GRADES 4-8

DAYTIME

WEEKDAYS

This 45-minute concert features the full Atlanta Symphony Orchestra in the program Southern Landscapes, journeying through the Southeastern United States in music from Copland, Gershwin and more. Support includes interdisciplinary standards-based materials so you can continue the symphony experience beyond your field trip and into the classroom.

VISIT ASO.ORG/SYMPHONIC-CONCERTS

“When I asked how their trip to the symphony was - they answered that it was amazing. They cried during the performance because the symphony experience was so beautiful. They talked about how it felt so much better to hear the music live versus through speakers.”

- Emily Price,
Springdale
Elementary

CHAMBER MUSIC EXPERIENCES

Chamber Music Experiences

Enjoy an engaging concert featuring a small ensemble of musicians with a Q&A session. Enhance your visit with an optional behind-the-scenes tour of Symphony Hall (based on availability).

YOUTH TRAINING PROGRAMS

Young musicians wanting to develop their skills can find many opportunities to grow and excel with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. Our annual Summer camp, Vivo Summer String Institute provides a fun and collaborative camp setting for youth musicians, starting at 5th grade.

ASO youth ensembles, including the Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra and Talent Development Program, along with our early professional Fellowship program, offer training, mentorship and masterclasses to foster the next generation of leading musicians.

TALENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

GRADES 6-12

The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra's Talent Development Program (TDP) identifies and trains highly dedicated student musicians with exceptional potential and passion for classical music—particularly those with obstacles on their path to study. Our mission is to expand opportunities for and to increase the presence of Atlanta-area students among music performance majors in conservatories.

ATLANTA SYMPHONY YOUTH ORCHESTRA

GRADES 8-12

Each season, the Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra (ASYO) welcomes talented 8th–12th grade musicians through a highly competitive audition process. Members perform in a dynamic concert series, participate in master classes with world-class artists, and receive mentorship from Atlanta Symphony Orchestra musicians—all while developing musical excellence in a vibrant community of peers. This ensemble is led by Resident Conductor of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and Music Director of the Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra, William R. Langley.
