NEW AFTERGLOW SERIES FEATURES SMALL ENSEMBLES UP CLOSE

As part of the new Midtown After Hours Series at the Goizueta Stage for Youth & Families

ATLANTA – This coming February, audiences can experience Atlanta's finest musicians closer than ever as they connect, collaborate, and shine. The new 3-concert series brings chamber works vividly to life as part of the Midtown After Hours programming at the Goizueta Stage for Youth & Families.

Tickets just went on sale for the first concert that is part of the season-long Brahms Revealed celebration on Friday, February 5, at 8 pm. ASO musicians and special guests bring Brahms's feverishly Romantic masterworks to life. The audience will be treated to an intimate performance by sibling duo, David and Julie Coucheron, who join forces for Brahms' Third Violin Sonata.

The dazzling program features some of the composer's most virtuosic and freewheeling works, letting every musician shine, especially in his Horn Trio. Brahms's String Sextet No. 1 includes stellar young cellist Sterling Elliott, who will be in Atlanta to perform on the orchestra's Delta Classical Series concerts as the featured guest artist. As part of our season-long Brahms Revealed celebration, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra musicians and special guests bring his feverishly Romantic masterworks to life. Throughout his bountiful creative life, Johannes Brahms poured his creative zeal into muscular chamber works — often featuring himself at the piano. The audience will be treated to an intimate performance by the ASO's own sibling duo, David and Julie Coucheron, when they join forces for Brahms' third violin sonata. The dazzling program features some of the composer's most virtuosic and freewheeling works, letting every musician shine, including stellar young cellist Sterling Elliott, the orchestra's featured guest artist.

About the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra

Under the leadership of Music Director Nathalie Stutzmann, the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra (ASO) offers live performances, media initiatives, and learning programs that unite, educate and enrich our community through the engaging and transformative power of orchestral music experiences. The ASO engages the diverse international community of our city, bringing people together in harmony—including our youngest citizens, with extensive opportunities for youth and families to experience the power of live orchestra music.

The Orchestra's range and depth are featured in more than 150 concerts each year, including the flagship Delta Classical Series, Movies in Concert, Family Concerts, Coca-Cola Holiday series, and many community and education concerts. In addition, the ASO presents many vibrant, wide-ranging events and artists through its Delta Atlanta Symphony Hall Live presentations. The ASO also performs regularly with the ASO Chorus, originally founded by Robert Shaw, and currently under the direction of Norman Mackenzie. The Chorus is featured on nine of the ASO's 27 GRAMMY® Award-winning recordings.
