ATLANTA SYMPHONY HALL WELCOMES T.I. TO CELEBRATE 20 YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF TRAP MUZIK WITH ATLANTA POPS ORCHESTRA

ATLANTA – Today, T.I. announced a special performance at Atlanta Symphony Hall on December 29, 2023, where he will be accompanied by the Atlanta Pops Orchestra. This concert celebrates the 20th anniversary of T.I.'s second studio album, Trap Muzik. Tickets for this celebratory experience go on sale on Tuesday, October 24 at 9:00AM at ticketmaster.com. This show is presented by Opus Group Entertainment.

Two decades have passed since T.I. redefined the soundscape of hip-hop with his groundbreaking album, Trap Muzik. Recognized not just as an album, but as a seismic shift in culture, Trap Muzik brought forth anthems such as “24”, “Be Easy”, “Rubber Band Man”, and “Let’s Get Away”. On this special night, fans will be treated to a live revisit of these hits and more, performed by the king of Trap Muzik himself.

Making the evening even more majestic, the Atlanta Pops Orchestra, led by Conductor Michael Giel, will be gracing the stage. Renowned for their rooted legacy in Atlanta's musical sphere, this collaboration with T.I. will weave together the soul of classical instruments with the unbridled fervor of Trap Muzik, creating a symphony for the senses.

The dress code for the evening is black tie/formal attire, underscoring the significance of this monumental event. The grandeur of the Atlanta Symphony Hall, the lyrical innovation of T.I., combined with the melodic artistry of the Atlanta Pops Orchestra, ensures an unforgettable experience.

This is not just another concert – it's a moment frozen in time, an event that promises to etch itself into the annals of music history.

For those ready to end the year with a landmark celebration, join us for an evening of nostalgia, music, and history in the heart of Atlanta. Let's make history together!
