About Ledisi

Ledisi, a Grammy Award-winning artist hailed as one of the most captivating vocalists of her generation, is a force to be reckoned with in the music industry. Ledisi's remarkable talent has earned her critical acclaim and numerous accolades throughout her career. With 15 Grammy nominations, including a win for Best Traditional R&B Performance for "Anything for You," her impact on the music industry is undeniable. Her chart-topping singles, including "I Need To Know, Pieces of Me and Alright," have solidified her status as a trailblazer in contemporary soul music.

Born in New Orleans and raised in Oakland, Ledisi's journey to stardom is a testament to her unwavering passion and dedication to her craft. From her early beginnings performing in local clubs to gracing the world's most prestigious stages, including a sold-out performance at Carnegie Hall, Ledisi has captivated audiences with her electrifying performances and magnetic stage presence.

Ledisi's commitment to artistic excellence extends beyond the music industry. As an actress, author, and advocate, Ledisi has used her platform to uplift and inspire others. Her notable film roles in "Leatherheads" and "Spinning Gold," along with her acclaimed portrayals of Mahalia Jackson in "Remember Me" and "Selma," have showcased her versatility and talent.

Ledisi with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra is presented by Delta Atlanta Symphony Hall LIVE and will take place at Atlanta Symphony Hall on Saturday, September 19, 2026 at 7:30PM. This performance will be conducted by Jacomo Bairos.
